

EVA AIR RESUMES NON-STOP PASSENGER SERVICE TO TAIPEI

Taiwan's leading airline delighted to welcome passengers from the UK once again

London (19 March, 2021) – Taiwan's leading independent airline, EVA Air has announced plans to resume flights from the UK to Taipei as from 15 April. The flight service will operate from London Heathrow Airport and will initially fly non-stop to Taipei.

The service from London will build back gradually to the daily service, with an initial schedule planned for departures on 15 April, 29 April and then on every Thursday in May (6, 13, 20, 27 May).

Commenting on the resumed flights, General Manager of EVA's London office, Mr. Bruce Wang, said:

"We are delighted with the news that our passenger service flights from the UK to Taipei will be resuming from next month. We are beginning to see the light at the end of the tunnel and there is real hope that international travel will resume again from the UK very soon. We are confident that this news will be very welcome among our passengers and look forward to welcoming them aboard our flights from London from 15 April 2021."
