

ALTERNATIVE EUROPEAN VALENTINE'S DAY ESCAPES WITH NH HOTEL GROUP

From the famed cuisine of Valencia and Porto to the history packed Copenhagen, NH Hotel Group offers couples the perfect base for a romantic getaway

London, February 3rd, 2022. With Valentine's Day just around the corner, NH Hotel Group is offering guests the perfect way to celebrate this special occasion with a twist on the traditional romantic mini break; boasting a wide range of properties in an array of lesser-known cities of love across Europe, the hotel group is offering Valentine's breaks for those looking for an alternative to popular hot-spots like Paris and Rome this year.

NH Collection Valencia Colón

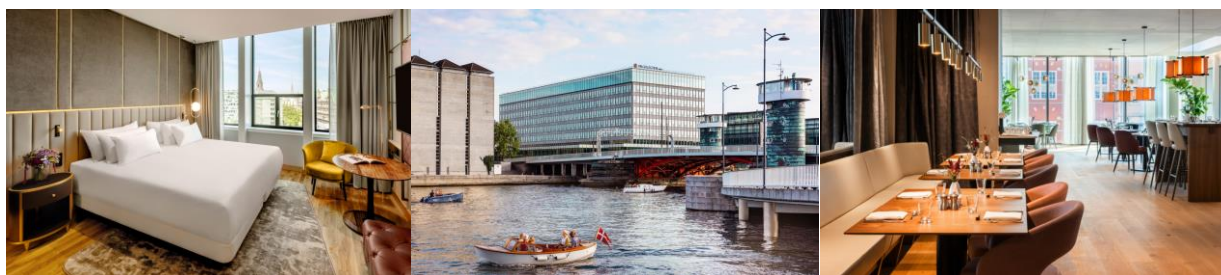

From L-R: Mumus Terrace Sky Bar, room, and bar

The city of paella is a fantastic option for a romantic escape with its beautiful beaches, a quaint old town, green parks and, of course, splendid cuisine, together with the mild weather that blesses the Mediterranean.

NH Collection Valencia Colón is a beautiful property conveniently located a stroll away from the coffee houses, bars and restaurants of Gran Via and within walking distance of Valencia's main visitor attractions, including the Marqués de Dos Aguas Palace, the cathedral, central market and silk exchange. The hotel has a boutique feel with just 47 elegant rooms with a stunning interior décor that pays homage to traditional British, French and Indian design. Additionally, the hotel's restaurant Mumus serves delicious local cuisine and Mumus Piano Club (with a 4-metre-long piano and regular live music) and Mumus Terrace Sky Bar (a calming oasis in the heart of Valencia) offer an intimate setting to unwind after a busy day of sightseeing!

Prices for Valentine's Day start from EUR 136* per room per night

NH Collection Copenhagen

From L-R: Room, façade and restaurant

The Danish capital is filled with scenic spots ideal for a stroll or bike ride for two along its delightful parks and sparkling canals. Adventurous couples looking for a challenge can venture outdoors for winter swimming, a strong tradition in Denmark.

One of the few five-star hotels in Copenhagen, NH Collection Copenhagen is the perfect base for a romantic getaway. Centrally located in the charming Christianhavn neighbourhood, with its many maritime, historical and creative attractions, couples can experience the history of the location. The property enjoys an inspiring setting overlooking the harbour and boasts 394 rooms and suites which are decorated in a modern style mixing Scandinavian and international elements throughout. Additionally, the hotel has two restaurants, a bar combining Spanish tapas with local seasonal ingredients and a wine bar with specially selected wines from the hotel's own sommelier – great for a celebratory drink!

Prices for Valentine's Day start from EUR 217* per room per night

NH Collection Porto Batalha

From L-R: façade, room and bar

With its splendid location on the banks of the river Douro and an array of architectural gems, Porto entices couples with its stunning historic centre, sumptuous gastronomy and the world famous vinho do Porto (Port wine).

Located in an 18th-century palace in the heart of Porto, the NH Collection Porto Batalha overlooks the famed Batalha Square. Once the home of a prominent wine-producing family, the hotel has the feel of old Porto from its historic façade to its elegant décor. Within easy reach of everything that makes the city a UNESCO World Heritage site, the NH Hotel Collection Porto Batalha makes an ideal base for exploring.
