

As summer looms, Minor Hotels recommends the best city centre hotels with striking rooftop areas

The Group has rounded up some of its most stylish and newest options for the summer season

Madrid, 29 June 2023 - With summer in full swing, Minor Hotels has picked some of its favourite city centre hotels in Europe with stunning rooftop areas, including two recently unveiled locations.

Milan's newest glass-bottomed pool

Located in the heart of Milan's trendy Via Tortona, nhow Milano is set to become the city's ultimate summer destination. Recently opened, its new 750 square metre rooftop area features a spectacular infinity glass-bottomed pool that extends beyond the building's edge (Vertigo Pool by Puro Beach) alongside two circular pools and a solarium area for guests to soak up the sun and work on their summer tan. The area also boasts a new restaurant and cocktail bar serving delicious meals and beverages to accompany the exclusive views.

Prices from €160 per room per night this summer* (pool open during the summer months)

Frankfurt's highest and coolest NFT rooftop bar

Opened in late 2022, nhow Frankfurt is geared up for its first summer season. Located on the hotel's 47th floor at a height of 185 metres, the NFT Sky Bar and Restaurant is a truly unique and innovative option for travellers visiting Frankfurt this summer. The rooftop bar is Germany's highest and its wrap-around design offers unrivalled 360 views of the city's skyline, a great spot for enjoying the delicious Californian-inspired dishes and sipping on one (or more) of the bar's signature cocktails. Additionally, guests are also able to get an update on the next NFT release, scheduled for later this year, while enjoying the stunning views and vibrant atmosphere.

Prices from €159 per room per night this summer*

Panoramic views of Barcelona's classics

Once visitors have seen Barcelona's sights from street level, it's time to take a second look from the rooftop terrace of NH Collection Barcelona Gran Hotel Calderón, conveniently located a five-minute walk from Paseo de Gracia. The 11-floor Eleven BCN cocktail bar is surrounded by glass walls for a birds-eye viewing point of some of the city's most famous landmarks including the nearby Las Ramblas, the Gothic Quarter and Gaudi's famed architectural masterpiece, Sagrada Familia. The five-star views are complemented by five-star services, as well as a pool.

Prices from €241 per room per night this summer*; pool open year round

Berlin for music

Music enthusiasts looking for a summer city break, filled with creative sessions and plentiful opportunities to sit back and enjoy the warm summer nights, should look no further than nhow Berlin. Located in the Friedrichshain-Kreuzberg district alongside the river Spree, the trendy property is Europe's first music hotel and boasts two studios, a recording booth and 24-hour guitar room service for guests to use when inspiration strikes. The hotel's fabulous waterfront terrace stretches around the south side of the property by the river serving refreshing cocktails, wines and beers and offering stunning views of the river, the striking Oberbaum Bridge and the thirty metre high Molecule Men sculpture.

Prices from €114 per room per night this summer*

About nhow hotels

nhow is Minor Hotel's disruptive hotel brand, known for its iconic establishments. Inspired by the cities in which they are located and designed by the leading creative minds of our times (Foster+Partners, OMA, founded by Rem Koolhaas, Karim Rashid, Sergei Tchoban, Teresa Sapey and Matteo Thun, among others), nhow is simultaneously a hotel and a creative hub. Each nhow establishment becomes a landmark in its city, a melting pot for creativity.

At a nhow hotel everything is unexpected, through-provoking and surprising. Every room, restaurant and lobby are an invitation to meditate, a call to take action in our lives, as embodied by the slogan #changenhow. Each guest will live their own personal experiences with one thing in common: the wow factor! Located in key urban districts undergoing a transformation, the nhow hotels quickly emerge as landmarks for self-discovery and experimentation through 'artivism'. Why wait? The time is now, nhow.
