

EVA AIR LAUNCHES SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN TO WIN WEST HAM UNITED HOME GAME TICKETS

EVA will give away 2 x general admission tickets for every home game throughout the 2023/24 season

31 August 2023. EVA Air, Taiwan's leading independent airline, is giving away a pair of general admission tickets to every home game played by their partners, West Ham United, throughout the 2023/2024 English Premier League Season. Lucky football fans will have a chance to win the tickets by following, liking and commenting on social media posts on EVA Air's official UK Instagram account, @evaair_uk and Facebook account, @evaairwayscorpuk.

EVA Air will create a post on Facebook and Instagram where applicants, who must be aged 18 or over, can enter the competition fourteen days prior to every West Ham United home game and winners will be chosen at random seven days prior to kick-off. All participants need to do is follow EVA Air on Instagram or Facebook, or both, then like the post that corresponds to the home game they would like to attend, and finally tag the person they would like to attend with in the comments section. The promotion will be active from West Ham United's second home game against Manchester City until their last home game against Luton Town and full terms and conditions are available on the EVA Air website.

Sarah Wu, General Manager of EVA Air's London office says: "We are excited to be able to offer this social media competition, which will help us increase engagement on our website and brand awareness of our flights and services among West Ham United's large fanbase."

The 2023/24 season will mark the sixth consecutive year that EVA Air has enjoyed a partnership with the Premier League football club and 2022/2023 UEFA Europa Conference League winners. The high profile partnership has already involved five years of fan activations and initiatives, player attendances and multiple branding opportunities for the airline and has helped EVA Air, one of the few 5-star SKYTRAX rated airlines, to increase awareness of its products and services in the UK and internationally.

Information about EVA Air's services, fares and routes, in addition to booking and buying options, is available at www.evaair.com.
