

EVA AIR PARTNERS WITH CENTRAL AND ROBINSON DEPARTMENT STORES ON TOURISM PROMOTION

The promotion, especially for EVA Air international passengers, will offer a range of enticing discounts and offers in Thailand's leading department stores

May 2024 – EVA Air, Taiwan’s leading independent airline, is partnering with two of the country’s leading department stores - Central and Robinson – on a special promotion whereby international tourists who have flown on the airline can receive enticing discounts on the stores’ products and services. The promotion will run until 28 February 2025.

Exclusively for EVA Air’s international passengers, the promotion will entitle eligible participants to cash coupons of up to 1,800 baht as well as restaurant deals and offers on some of the stores’ top brands. In order to receive their offers, all customers need to do is to present their EVA Air boarding pass at the customer services department of any of the Central and Robinson department stores throughout the country. A list of the stores is available here.

Additionally, EVA Air’s international passengers can receive further discounts by registering for The 1 Tourist Card, which entitles them to a 5% discount and even more exclusive offers in the department stores as well as a tax refund of up to 6%.

Referring to the ~~TAT~~ and department store collaboration, Clay Sun, EVA Air President, said: “We are delighted to be partnering with Central Department Stores and Robinson Department Stores on this exclusive promotion, which will enable our international passengers to benefit on some excellent discounts on the stores’ products and services during their stay in Thailand.”
