6 March 2025: Newmarket Holidays has launched four new tours for Christmas 2025, including three that are exclusively for solo travellers, and introduced a 10% saving on all festive tours that are booked before 31 March.

The new group holidays for solos include Christmas in The Beatles' Liverpool & Manchester, a 6-day getaway that is based at a countryside spa hotel and includes a guided tour of Liverpool and the city's famous Beatles attractions, plus Christmas Eve in Chester followed by a carol service, a Champagne breakfast, lunch and dinner on Christmas Day, and a Boxing Day tour of Manchester. Prices start from £1,440 (including the 10% saving) with half board accommodation, tours and transfers included.

For solo travellers with a love of history, Christmas in Cambridge and Warwick is a group tour that visits Bletchley Park, home of the World War II codebreakers. It includes a walking tour of historic Cambridge, and a visit to Warwick Castle to follow an atmospheric evening light trail through the grounds and ramparts. The six-day holiday includes five breakfasts and dinners, a Champagne brunch, lunch and dinner on Christmas day, tours and transfers, with prices from £1,692 per person, including the 10% saving.

Another new launch for solo travellers is Christmas in the Slovenian Alps, featuring a magical stay in the alpine resort of Kranjska Gora. Guests relax in the snow-covered setting, take in the festive finery of Slovenia's capital, Ljubljana, shop for bargains at the Christmas markets of lakeside Bled, and have the option of venturing through the Postojna Caves and visiting the spectacular Predjama Castle, perched in the middle of a sheer cliff face and recognised as the world's longest cave castle. Prices start from £1,949 with the discount and include half board accommodation, return flights from Gatwick, tours and excursions.

Christmas in England's Historic South is a new group tour that visits three of England's most historic southern centres, exploring Portsmouth's historic dockyards from a cruise around the harbour, discovering ancient England's former capital of Winchester and enjoying the Christmas market held in the grounds of the city's cathedral, and then heading to Salisbury and touring its world-famous cathedral. Prices for the five-day tour start from £990 per person with the discount, and include half-board accommodation, a Christmas Day lunch and excursions.

Hayley Morris, Head of Trade Sales and Partnerships at Newmarket Holidays says: "Christmas and New Year is such a special time to travel. Our range of escorted festive tours includes everything from fascinating staycations to Europe's best festive markets, winter wonderlands, sunny escapes and all-inclusive retreats, and these new additions will help to give agents an even stronger offering to customers.

"We're also pleased to add to our range of Christmas holidays for solo travellers, with three brand new tours and no single supplements on 22 festive getaways, giving agents a really powerful set of options for people travelling on their own."
