

EVA Air to Launch Daily Non-Stop Taipei-Chiang Mai Flights

TAIPEI, TAIWAN – Taiwan’s leading independent airline EVA Air will launch daily nonstop flights between Taipei and Chiang Mai on 1 July 2018. The award-winning airline will serve the route with an Airbus A321-200, configured in Business and Economy Classes for 184 passengers. With easy, one-stop connections through Taipei, the new route will give passengers on EVA Air’s 82 weekly flights from North America more convenient access to Chiang Mai, Northern Thailand’s largest city.

With its rich history, cultural attractions and laid-back atmosphere, Chiang Mai was selected as one of the 25 Best Destinations in the world by TripAdvisor and listed in the Top 10 Best Cities worldwide by Travel + Leisure. UNESCO recently designated Chiang Mai as a Creative City for its crafts and folk art, while its surrounding natural beauty continues to attract tourists who want to explore the landscape and wildlife.

EVA Air’s new Taipei-Chiang Mai route aims to make air travel from North America to Northern Thailand easier than ever. The Chiang Mai arrival times are early enough in the day for passengers to enjoy some sightseeing, while the return flights to Taipei are scheduled so that passengers can make one-stop connections to all of the major cities EVA Air serves in North America, including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Houston, Chicago, Seattle, Vancouver, Toronto and New York.
