

EASTER ESCAPES THAT CRACK THE MOULD WITH NH HOTEL GROUP

Hatch a plan to travel to European cities that promise an exceptional Easter weekend!

London, 07 March 2019. Those looking to hop over to Europe this Easter can look forward to a break to remember at stylish NH Hotel Group properties in some of Europe's most exciting cities. From traditional parades and spring floral displays to sweet seasonal treats, there's something to suit every Easter celebration.

The art of chocolate in Rotterdam

It may not be as well-known for chocolate as its neighbour Belgium, but The Netherlands is home to some of the world's best chocolatiers. Artisans such as De Bonte Koe Chocolate in Rotterdam are known for producing exquisite sweet creations every Easter. What's more, Rotterdam is one of the trendiest new urban hotspots for architecture, design and art in Europe making it the ultimate destination for a cool Easter.

Seven days of celebration in Seville

Taking place in the lead up to the Easter weekend, the Semana Santa (Holy Week) in Seville is one of the city's most iconic celebrations. Huge statues of religious icons are paraded through the streets on floats, carried by locals devoted to upholding the region's religious traditions. Each day the procession can last up to 12 hours and is celebrated throughout the city with traditional dancing, food and wine.
